THE "LEINSTER."

To the Editor of the Irish Times.

This evening's prominent New York Evening paper, referring to the sinking of the Lusitania, says: "The Lusitania was a German submarine, and was sunk by a German submarine."

This is all—yours, J. J. Harris.

PLEADING FOR GERMAN DEMOCRACY.

The Labour Party held yesterday at the General Hall, Westminster, an emergency meeting for the purpose of discussing the situation in Germany.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. J. H. Thomas, M.P., and was attended by a large number of members of the party.

Mr. Thomas opened the proceedings by pointing out the gravity of the situation in Germany, and the need for a democratic government.

He then moved a resolution that the Labour Party should support a democratic government in Germany, and should work for the establishment of a republic.

The resolution was carried by a large majority.

TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION COMMITTEE.

The Technical Instruction Committee, which was set up by the Government to consider the question of technical education, has today issued a report.

The report states that the committee has found that there is a serious shortage of technical education in this country, and that it is essential that steps be taken to remedy this.

The committee recommends that the Government should establish a technical education board, and should provide financial assistance for technical education.

MR. WILLIAMS'S WARNING.

Mr. Williams (Transport Workers) moved today in the House of Commons a resolution that the Government should take steps to improve the conditions of the transport workers.

He pointed out that the transport workers were in a very difficult position, and that the Government had a duty to see that their conditions were improved.

He moved a resolution that the Government should establish a transport workers' committee, and should provide financial assistance for the transport workers.

The resolution was carried by a large majority.
